

Job Title: Intern - Backlight improvement ingredient

Role:

You will be contributing to develop next generation backlight keyboard from performance, manufacturing and cost aspect, and also define specification at highest quality level by collaboration among different functions.

You will conduct development from design to application. Prove and consolidate your ideas.

You will learn optics-related knowledge regarding illumination, photometry and optical instruments.

Key Qualifications:

For consideration, you must bring the following minimum skills and behaviors to our team:

- Mechanical design with Creo
- Knowledge regarding metal and plastic

In addition, preferable skills and behaviors include:

- Knowledge of optics

Education:

- Degree in Mechanical Engineering